

Responsibility of Region 10 Youth Director

The AHYA Code of Conduct and the "Three Strikes You're Out" that was adopted by the AHYA Board in 2002. Fill free to copy any of the enclosed.

Responsibilities as a Regional Youth Director and/or Vice Director cover three primary groups: your local clubs, your Region and the AHYA, as well as abiding by the AHA Code of Conduct and the AHYA Code of Conduct.

Responsibilities to your local clubs include, but are not limited to:

- Attend club events, when invited
- Disseminating information about AHA youth programs
- Representing your local youth membership at Regional meetings

Responsibilities to your Region include, but are not limited to:

- Working with your Regional Youth Coordinator to develop youth programs
- Getting sponsorships for Youth Round-Up and helping at the show
- Representing your Regional youth membership at National meetings
- Hold an annual youth Regional meeting (Round-Up and/or Regional Show)

Responsibilities to AHYA include, but are not limited to:

- Attending the AHYA Board meeting in Colorado usually in March
- Coordinating and attending the AHYA Convention in July 2014 (Youth Nationals)
- Attending the AHYA Board meeting held after the U.S. Nationals in the fall
- Fundraising
- Soliciting youth to affiliate with AHYA
- Submit reports of your activities (Regional Board & Youth Coordinator - for the Regional meetings) & AHYA Coordinator.

The cost that will be incurred by you during this directorship includes transportation, meals and lodging for the AHYA Board meetings, the AHYA Convention and the October AHYA meeting. The Region 10 board has a line item budget for the Youth Director and Vice Youth Director. The Region 10 Board has budgeted $2,000.00 for 2014.

The Youth Director & Vice Director serves a one year term. The new Youth Director & Vice Director will not take over until after the 2014 Youth Convention at Youth Nationals. Their term runs from that point on. Any questions please call or email me. joan@rosesarabians.com or 608-435-6405
